

A PERFECT DAY IN CALIFORNIA WINE COUNTRY

By: Pepe Baracus - April 6, 2014

With so many wineries in California's Napa Valley wine region it's impossible to visit all of them in one day. To get a feel for the flavors and different types of wines available visit only three to four wineries. For a perfect day in wine country mix tasting with relaxation and scenery.

First on the cl
by the
Napa
spark
You'll
know

Charles Krug
PETER MONDAVI FAMILY

offers visitors
es purchased
s you'll visit in
your glass of
and hillsides.
ty. Before you

Your next stop is St. Supéry Vineyards & Winery. What makes St. Supéry special

After your lunch it's time to continue your wine education by visiting the first winery in Napa Valley, Charles Krug Winery. Charles Krug, now part of the Peter Mondavi family, has a small intimate tasting center with a knowledgeable staff. Although the first winery in Napa, it never tends to get too crowded so you can expect great service while drinking their fantastic red wines.

large picnic area with benches and trees providing plenty of shade. Take your food and wine outside and enjoy a well-deserved wine country break.

After your lunch it's time to continue your wine education by visiting the first winery in Napa Valley, Charles Krug Winery. Charles Krug, now part of the Peter Mondavi family, has a small intimate tasting center with a knowledgeable staff. Although the first winery in Napa, it never tends to get too crowded so you can expect great service while drinking their fantastic red wines.

As your day exploring wine country comes to a close, you'll want to make the most of your time. Enter Sterling Vineyards, a beautiful vineyard lined on both sides by vines and trees. Sterling's aerial tramcars to access their tasting room. Sterling's grounds, including the vineyard, offer a terrace where you'll be able to enjoy the views of Napa Valley.

