Mother's Day Gift Guide: The Best Rosé Champagnes

Katie Kelly Bell | Apr 22, 2019,

To best celebrate your mother this year, bring her a bottle of sparkling wine or Champagne for Mother's Day. As a mother of three, I can vouch for the fact that we moms like to think we deserve a nice bottle of bubbly, most preferably rosé bubbly. Rosé is feminine, complex, intriguing, and beautiful in any glass-- just be sure you bring home a bubbly made using méthode champenoise (where secondary fermentation occurs in the bottle). This style of sparkling is a masterpiece of effort and precision, and below you'll find a list of méthode champenoise selections that are sure to please mom. Spend a fortune or just your lunch money, there is lovely bubbly for every budget and even mom appreciates money well spent.

DOMAINE CARNEROS.

Domaine Carneros Brut Rosé Cuvée de la Pompadour:

This is an especially fun sparkling to gift mom because the winemaker is a woman (Eileen Crane) --whose 30 years of winemaking experience makes her something of a sparkling wine icon. Crane has directed both winemaking and facilities development at Domaine Carneros from its beginning—bringing this American outpost of Taittinger Champagne into prominence, and the Cuvée de la Pompadour is her signature wine. A blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from Carneros, this wine's streams of pearly bubbles deliver intense notes of spicy wild strawberry and peach to the palate. Gorgeous to look at and to drink. $39.99
