

american sparklers for the 4th!

Posted on July 4, 2018

As an American holiday that involves fireworks, there's only one thing to drink: American sparkling wine! A few domestic wineries use the same grapes (Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier) and winemaking method as Champagne. Here are a few I like:

Domaine Carneros

One of my favorite domestic sparkling wine producers, from California's Carneros appellation spanning both Sonoma and Napa. Can't go wrong with the Brut, the rosé, or their higher-end Le Rêve which is my mom's favorite. Rosé $38.99
