

OUR NEW TEST GARDENS, REVEALED!

Sunset

WINE LOVER'S GUIDE

BE A SMART CABERNET SHOPPER

The king of reds still reigns (we drink more Cabernet Sauvignon than any other red)—and Napa Valley holds court. But other regions in California and Washington are going head-to-head with Napa's high-scoring Cabs, and many are great values. Our judges also discovered that, even in Napa, you don't have to empty your wallet to taste a gold medal winner.

LAUREL GLEN Vineyard

Laurel Glen 2013
"Counterpoint"
Cabernet Sauvignon
(Sonoma Mountain; $40)