

LoCa Uncorked

The Best of Lodi Wines in the Best Locations

SEPTEMBER 30, 2012 | BY: STEVE FERREE

Lodi Wine Country is proud to announce the exciting LoCA Uncorked commencing on October 6 from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. at Treasure Island. This great event, formally known as Lodi's Treasure Island Wine Fest, not only presents a great collection of over 200 Lodi Wines, but, being based on Treasure Island during Fleet Week, you will also experience the thrills of the Blue Angels zooming overhead during the Fleet Week celebrations. This year you might also have an opportunity to check out participants in the America's Cup in the Fleet Week practicing on the bay.

This great selection of Lodi Wine will be paired with a collection of artisan cheeses, olive oils and wine country cuisine from various food purveyors from the area. Tickets are regularly $55 in advance or $65 at the gate but, if you purchase online at www.locauncorked.com prior to 5:00 p.m. on October 1, using the promo code LU12B2B you will receive an additional $10 off your ticket purchase.

Lodi Wine Country is located in the foothills of the Mediterranean climate of San Francisco Bay. This wine is characterized by the firm tannins and Wine growing history in the Lodi area along with the winemakers continued to grow into the 20th century and in 1986 the Lodi Appellation (American Viticulture Area) was founded. This unknown wine growing region flourished in the 90's and into the 21st century with Robert Mondavi developing his Woodbridge operation and many winemakers and growers starting several boutique wineries in the area. Today Lodi is home to over 70 wineries with thousands of acres of premium wine grapes. Lodi leads the industry in sustainable viticultural practices, preserving the land for generations to come.
