Cochon555, Wine Tasting With Robert Parker, Beer and Bourbon Festival

BY ANNIE WU | EPOCH TIMES • 2 WEEKS AGO

Cochon555 in New York City

This annual pork feast visits 20 major cities in North America to raise awareness and money for socially responsible causes. The festival is a collaboration between the Smillie of Upland, California, and Mena of Hecho en DUMBA, a restaurant in Los Angeles. The competition to prepare the winning chef will advance to the next round.

The festival starts on Jan. 22, followed by the Late Night and Japanese after-hours pairings. The main competition will be on Jan. 23.

Friday, Jan. 22–Sunday, Jan. 23
Chelsea Piers, Pier 60
23rd Street & West Side Highway

Matter of Taste

Wine expert Robert Parker and his team of reviewers at the Wine Advocate are hosting a grand tasting event at the Mandarin Oriental. They have selected more than 150 of their favorite wines from around the world, including from Château Pontet-Canet (Pauillac), Verite (California), Cayuse (Washington), Cullen (Australia), Fontodi (Tuscany), and JJ Prum (Germany). Winemakers will also teach master classes on the history of their estates—$180 per person ($120 if you are a member of The Wine Advocate at eRobertParker.com).

Saturday, Feb. 20
2 p.m.–6 p.m.
Mandarin Oriental
