

MALBEC WORLD DAY: OUR 15 FAVORITE MALBECS FROM THE LAST 10 YEARS

Friday, April 17, 2020

For me every day is Malbec Day so I really don't see the point of celebrating a Malbec World Day today. But just to add a little excitement to the festivities, here are the 15 best malbec wines ever tasted at JamesSuckling.com since I began the company in 2010.

It should be no surprise that Argentina dominates the best of the best but you might be surprised to see an ancient vine malbec from the winery of Neyen in the Apalta Valley in Chile and an exotic malbec from one of the legendary wineries of Australia, Wendouree.
