

the other P rosé: pinot noir

Posted on July 18, 2018 by GRAPEFRIEND

Last month we delved into Provence, this month we'll take the other great P in pink wines: Pinot Noir. Now, this is a grape not a region like Provence, but it's a grape that makes some of my most favorite rosés ever (especially from the Willamette Valley in Oregon). Try these:

portlandia.

Portlandia:

Perfect for cocktail hour with cheese and fig jam.

$11.49

