

Sommelier Iris Rowlee Shares A Few Of Her Favorite Bottles Of Prosecco

Consulting Sommelier at 'Frances' in San Francisco, Iris Rowlee shares a few of her favorite bottles of prosecco with Bay Area Focus host Michelle Griego and explains the art of this much-loved sparkling Italian white wine.

“The region is Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG, and DOCG indicates that it’s a high level of quality. This is a very small hilly growing region in the norther areas in the state of Veneto in Italy, its very beautiful and I highly recommend a visit of you're ever in this area of Italy. They are know for a style of wine made predominately from the grape Glera.” - Iris Rowlee, Sommelier at 'Frances' in San Francisco
