Pinot on point

A range of reds carries through the season

GANNETT

It's been a winter of extremes in many parts of the country — unseasonably warm temperatures and record-setting snowstorms. Pinot noirs offer an appropriately wide spectrum of choices, from budget to luxury.

2015 Ritual Pinot Noir

The cool climate and coastal vineyards of Chile's Casablanca Valley make for vibrant pinot noirs, a grape variety not usually associated with the country. Ritual takes advantage with the aromas of cherries and raspberries and a juicy, balanced flavor.
■ Price: $19.99.

2012 Emeritus Vineyards Halberg Ranch Pinot Noir

This dry-farmed pinot noir is the creation of an American entrepreneur, a French winemaker and a Sonoma County vineyard manager. The flavors of berry, forest floor and oak spice build a powerful but graceful combination.
■ Price: $42.

2015 Ritual Pinot Noir

Cycles of drought brought the original winemaker, LaZarre, personally to the vineyards. Central Coast's cool climate and coastal vineyards of Chile's Casablanca Valley make for vibrant pinot noirs, a grape variety not usually associated with the country. Ritual takes advantage with the aromas of cherries and raspberries and a juicy, balanced flavor.
■ Price: $19.99.
