

WINE ENTHUSIAST

THE WORLD IN YOUR GLASS

JULY 2015

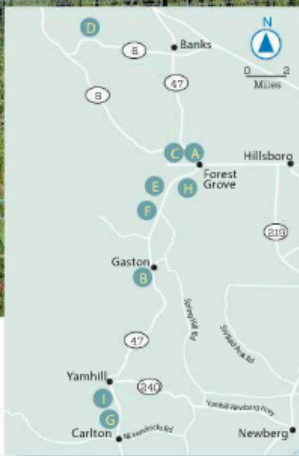

ROAD TRIP!

Thirsty for adventure? Cruise through some of America's most picturesque wine regions on these five drives.

BY ALEXIS KORMAN
PHOTOS BY PATRICK BENNETT

Montinore Estate

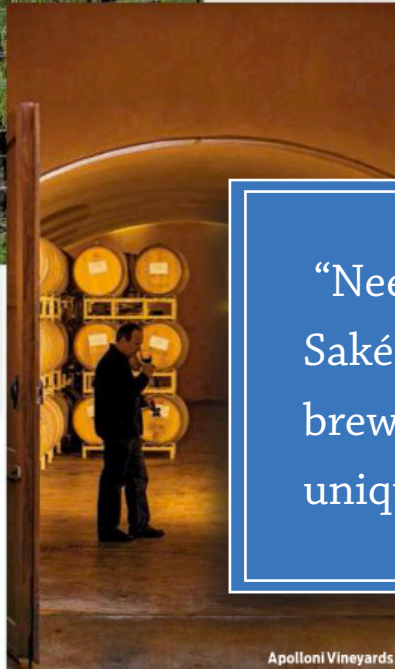

WHERE TO STAY

Opt for a night at the quirky McMenamins Grand Lodge in Forest Grove. The European-style accommodations mean shared bathrooms, but the former Masonic property offers 77 guest rooms, lively restaurants and pubs, a day spa and convention space.

“Need a break from vino? SakéOne offers free sake brewery tours daily and unique tasting flights”

Sip 47, Oregon

Winding through the heart of the Northern Willamette Valley, Route 47 is sometimes called Oregon's "road less traveled" wine route (translation: fewer tasting rooms overcrowded with tourists). A drive along Sip 47 takes visitors past rolling, vine-covered hills and bucolic farms, with 17 outstanding stops along a clearly marked route.

Apolloni Vineyards

pasta and Pinot dinners. The beautiful, 210-acre Montinore Estate is certified biodynamic, with seven grape varieties to try. The convivial, casual Plum Hill Vineyards offers an outdoor patio and a dog corral designed to let pets play while you taste. If the weather is fine, stop by Canan's Feast Winery for stately views from its outdoor patio, not to mention its bocce court and big red wines (try the Italian varieties).

THINGS TO DO

Need a break from vino? SakéOne offers free sake brewery tours daily and unique tasting flights. Call ahead before your first visit to Kookoolan Farms. It has a self-serve farm

Plum Hill Vineyards

McMenamins Grand Lodge

SakéOne
America's Premium Sake Company

CHARLES COMMUNICATIONS
ASSOCIATES, LLC