VERAMONTE

2018 Veramonte Rosé Pinot Noir, Casablanca Valley, Chile $11

Love pink wine like I do? You might not think of heading south to Chile for rosé, but this wine will change your mind. It sports one of the highest price-to-quality quotients in the pink category. Made with Pinot Noir grapes grown in Chile's cool-climate Casablanca Valley, which saddles up to the Pacific Ocean, its delicate rosy hue is an indication of its elegance. Floral notes mingle with bright berry aromas in a wine that puts the tantalizing "oh" in rosé. - Leslie Sbrocco, host of *Check, Please! Bay Area
