WHERE TO WINE AND DINE ON VALENTINE'S DAY IN WINE COUNTRY

By: Chris Macias

It doesn't matter if you've been married for decades or you swiped right on Tinder and scored newfound love, nothing sweetens Valentine's Day like wine. Whether you're going big or plan to shoot Cupid's arrow on a tighter budget, we have you covered no matter the level of commitment. Here are some ideas for wine-themed dates for your Valentine:

EAST BAY

Wente: Explore one of Livermore's oldest and most storied wineries with a flight of reserve wines at its Winemakers Studio ($20). Stroll around the spacious lawn and have an impromptu picnic of prawns, pizza and salad from Wente's Wood Fire Kitchen.
